NON-DEGREE-SEEKING APPLICANTS

Applicants who would like to take graduate courses for personal enrichment or to fulfill prerequisites for another program can take course(s) as a non-degree-seeking student. Non-degree-seeking students are not pursuing any of The Graduate College's degree programs.

Admission Requirements for U.S. Citizens

The items listed below are required for admission consideration:

- completed online application
- $20 nonrefundable application fee
- $60 nonrefundable application fee for applicants with international credentials
- a baccalaureate degree from a regionally accredited university
- official transcripts (and marksheets if applicable) from the institution that shows the highest degree earned
- completed non-degree-seeking student form

Admission Requirements for International Applicants

An international applicant is defined as an applicant who is not a citizen or permanent resident of the United States. All international applicants fall under regulations of the United States Department of Homeland Security. Federal law governs university rules regarding non-U.S. citizens; hence, admission requirements for international applicants differ from those for U.S. citizens.

The following items, in addition to those listed for U.S. citizens, are required for admission consideration.

- official transcripts from every institution attended: one in the native language and one certified English translation (if transcripts are issued in a language other than English).
- a copy of the graduation/degree certificate (diploma) showing the type of degree and the date in which the degree was earned.
- official (iBT) TOEFL scores of 78 or higher, with a minimum of 26 on the speaking section and a minimum of 19 in all other sections. The Texas Education Agency (TEA) does not accept any other English proficiency exams.

Refer to the International Admission Documents section of this catalog or The Graduate College's website for more information about these requirements.

F-1 Visa Enrollment Requirements

A student under F-1 student visa must be enrolled full-time (nine hours) in the fall and spring terms. An F-1 student does not have to enroll during the summer if they student is eligible and intends to register for the next term. A new initial F-1 student who recently gained admission into the U.S. with a program start date set to begin with the summer session must enroll full-time for that summer session. Also, international students not holding an assistantship can be enrolled in fewer than 9 hours and be considered full-time under two conditions: a) if they have completed all course work and are completing an internship integral to their degree program, b) if they have completed all course requirements and are working on their thesis/dissertation only. The exception under
