

---

The graduate minor in Music Education requires 12 semester credit hours of courses chosen in consultation with the graduate advisor. Graduate students majoring in other departments should meet with the director of graduate studies in music to choose the courses.