Our Mission

Vision

ISSS will be nationally recognized as a leader in campus internationalization and excellence in international student services.

Mission

ISSS advances campus internationalization at Texas State University by offering intentional, holistic, and inclusive immigration and integration services for international students, faculty, and staff.

Goals

- To support Texas State international students by providing immigration, integration, and intercultural expertise to the University community.
- To advance Texas State's efforts to increase and retain international students.
- To deliver meaningful and informed programming initiatives that support international student success at Texas State and post-graduation.

Who is an international student?

An international student is a student enrolled in a U.S. academic program in a non-immigrant visa classification.

- Common non-immigrant visa classifications are: A-1, A-2, B-1, B-2, E-1, E-2, F-1, F-2, H-1, H-4, J-1, J-2, K-1, L-1, L-2, M-1, R-1, R-2, TN, and TD.
- F-1 Student is the most common non-immigrant visa classification at Texas State with over 90 percent of international students in F-1 status.
- A student who has applied for or received an immigrant classification such as permanent residency or refugee or asylum status, or who is undocumented is not categorized as an international student.

General Regulations

The following regulations govern F-1 and J-1 international students enrolled at Texas State:

International students are required to:

- attend a mandatory F-1 Student Immigration Check-in session or J-1 Orientation.
- enroll in a full course of study every fall and spring semesters. Summer is an authorized break period, however, full-time enrollment is required in summer for students whose first semester begins in summer;
- obtain permission from International Student and Scholar Services (ISSS) before dropping below a full course of study for any reason. (See Reduced Course Load (<https://www.international.txstate.edu/current/Reduced-Course-Load--RCL-.html>));
- obtain permission from International Student and Scholar Services before engaging in off-campus employment. (see Curricular Practical Training (CPT) (<https://www.international.txstate.edu/work-authorization/curricular-practical-training-cpt.html>) or Optional Practical Training (OPT) (<https://www.international.txstate.edu/work-authorization/optional-practical-training-opt.html>));

- not work more than 20 hours per week while participating in on-campus employment in the fall and spring semesters. Students may work more than 20 hours per week during the summer and authorized break periods (see On-campus Employment (<https://www.international.txstate.edu/Work-Authorization/oncampus.html>));
- report address changes or personal information to International Student and Scholar Services within 10 days of the change. (see Change of Address Update (<https://tim.txstate.edu/internationalofficeaddresschange/Login/?returnurl=%2finternationalofficeaddresschange%2f>));
- report any changes in program of study (change of major, adding a minor/concentration, etc.) to International Student and Scholar Services via inational@txstate.edu
- apply for a program extension from International Student and Scholar Services prior to the end date on the I-20;
- apply for concurrent or transient enrollment approval when taking courses at an institution other than Texas State University (see Concurrent Enrollment here (<https://www.international.txstate.edu/current-f1-students/students-requests.html>));
- obtain a travel signature from International Student and Scholar Services for all international travel;
- request a transfer of their SEVIS record from International Student and Scholar Services to transfer to a new SEVIS-certified institution (see SEVIS Transfer-out (<https://www.international.txstate.edu/current/TransferOut.html>));
- notify International Student and Scholar Services upon approval of a change of non-immigration status, or an adjustment of status to permanent residency; and
- maintain continuous health insurance coverage from the time of enrollment to the time of completion of the degree program or until otherwise cease to be a student at Texas State by obtaining coverage under the designated international student health insurance policy, or apply for a waiver and present acceptable proof of other comparable and adequate health insurance coverage (see Health Insurance (<https://www.international.txstate.edu/current/Health-insurance-.html>)).
