Program Overview
Dialogue, essential to any practical application of philosophy, is at the heart of the applied philosophy and ethics (MAAPE) program. Students apply theory by participating in the Department of Philosophy's Dialogue Series. The series includes student and faculty presenters from all eight colleges on campus, as well as speakers from off campus.

Comprehensive Examination Requirement

Our comprehensive exam takes the form of an exit interview, which is typically conducted by two faculty members. This is an hour-long oral exam. The exam focuses on three of the student’s papers; however, includes more general questions as well. The exam can be repeated until the student passes it.

Students who do not successfully complete the requirements for the degree within the timelines specified will be dismissed from the program.
