Courses Offered

Political Science (POSI)

POSI 5100. Practicum in Teaching Political Science.
An introduction to key concepts and practices in the teaching of college introductory Political Science courses. Provides regular in-service training and planned periodic evaluations of instructional responsibilities. Required for first-year teaching and instructional assistants in the Political Science Department. This course does not earn graduate degree credit. Repeatable with different emphasis. Graded on a credit (CR), no-credit (F) basis.

POSI 5199B. Thesis.
This course represents a student’s continuing thesis enrollment. The student continues to enroll in this course until the thesis is submitted for binding. Graded on a credit (CR), progress (PR), no-credit (F) basis.

Background

For M.P.A. students who have a limited statistics background, three hours of credit in applied statistics will be required. Students may fulfill this requirement by enrolling in POSI 5303. Students must complete the statistics requirement prior to enrolling in POSI 5334 and POSI 5335. Students must earn a grade of “B” or better in POSI 5303. If a student has completed an undergraduate statistics course within the last three academic years, prior to starting the M.P.A. program, and received a grade of “A”, the background requirement of POSI 5303 may be waived. Students who do not have administrative experience must take POSI 5370 Internship in Government in the first 24 hours. This background can be waived by sending documentation of administrative experience directly to the M.P.A. director.

Comprehensive Examination

An oral comprehensive examination over the applied research project is required for completion of the M.P.A. degree.

Applied Research Project

The applied research project (POSI 5397) is a required research paper for the M.P.A. degree. Students who intend to register for POSI 5397 must prepare a prospectus to include a statement of the problem, theoretical framework, research design, specification of data, and a representative bibliography. The proposal should be presented to the supervising instructor prior to registration for the course.
