MINOR OF SCIENCE (M.S.) MAJOR IN APPLIED

SOCIOLOGY

Major Program

The Master of Science (M.S.) degree with a Major in Applied Sociology is designed to prepare students for careers in state and federal government agencies, large and small businesses and non-profit organizations. Graduates of this program will have the skills and knowledge necessary to compete in a rapidly changing job market, having mastered the techniques of both qualitative and quantitative research, general statistical analysis, and impact analysis.

Application Requirements

The items listed below are required for admission consideration for applicable semesters of entry during the current academic year. Submission instructions, additional details, and changes to admission requirements for semesters other than the current academic year can be found on The Graduate College’s website (http://www.gradcollege.txstate.edu). International students should review the International Admission Documents webpage (http://mycatalog.txstate.edu/graduate/admission-documents/international) for additional requirements.

- completed online application
- $55 nonrefundable application fee or
- $90 nonrefundable application fee for applications with international credentials
- baccalaureate degree from a regionally accredited university
- official transcripts from each institution where course credit was granted
- minimum 3.0 GPA in the last 60 hours of undergraduate course work (plus any completed graduate courses)
- background course work in sociological theory, statistics, SPSS, and social research
- GRE not required
- statement of purpose (two pages, double-spaced with the student’s full name and contact information) that describes personal and career goals. Include academic interests and the relationship of this graduate degree to life/personal goals. Also, the statement should discuss the student’s interest in this particular graduate program and the student’s career goals after earning the degree. The Graduate Admissions Committee will evaluate the following:
  - Did the student demonstrate a familiarity with the field?
  - Did the student indicate his/her strengths (background, experience, training, and education)?
  - Did the student express why the program will hone his/her skills?
  - Did the student statement show excellence or promise in writing skills?
  - three letters of recommendation from individuals knowledgeable about the student’s academic ability and promise as a scholar.

TOEFL or IELTS Scores

Non-native English speakers who do not qualify for an English proficiency waiver:

- official TOEFL iBT scores required with a 78 overall
- official IELTS (academic) scores required with a 6.5 overall and
  - minimum individual module scores of 6.0

The student may qualify for English-based conditional admission if the minimum scores below are met:

- official TOEFL iBT scores required with a 59 overall
- official IELTS (academic) scores required with a 5.5 overall and
  - minimum individual module scores of 5.5

Degree Requirements

The Master of Science (M.S.) degree with a major in Applied Sociology requires 37 semester credit hours. Students who do not have the appropriate background course work may be required to complete leveling courses. Students must pass one or more comprehensive examinations, either written, oral, or both at the end of their course work. Defense of the professional research paper, as well as knowledge of course work, will be the foci of this comprehensive examination.
