Registration and Course Credit

Since applications are for specific terms, an applicant should notify The Graduate College as soon as possible if he or she will not be enrolling in the term of admission.

Texas State utilizes an online registration system referred to as Texas State Self-Service. Texas State Self-Service can be accessed through CatsWeb (http://www.catsweb.txstate.edu). It provides step-by-step instructions on how to register online and information on how to search for courses. For more information, students should access the Office of the University Registrar’s website at http://www.registrar.txstate.edu. Registration in The Graduate College beyond the first term depends on satisfactory progress in fulfilling any admission conditions that may have been imposed and making satisfactory academic progress.

Registration Termination

The dean of The Graduate College may terminate the registration of any student who fails to comply with Graduate College and/or other appropriate university regulations.

Course Load and Overloads

Course Load

At the graduate level, the full-time course load during the fall, spring, and summer is nine semester hours. Seven hours is considered ¾ time and five hours is half-time. Students may take up to fifteen hours during the fall and spring terms and up to twelve hours during the summer.

An international student on an F-1 visa must register as a full-time student each fall and spring term. As a graduate student, an international student must carry a minimum of nine semester credit hours, as required by immigration regulations, to be considered full-time.

The department or operating unit will determine the permissible course load of employees of the university under their supervision. Graduate assistants should refer to the “Salaried Graduate Student Employment Procedures” (http://www.txstate.edu/effective/UPPS/upps-07-07-06.html) outlined in UPPS 07.07.06.

A student receiving VA benefits must check with the Veterans Affairs Office for enrollment requirements at 512.245.2641.

Overloads

Course loads up to eighteen hours require written approval. Only the dean of The Graduate College may authorize an overload. To request an overload, you must make a request to your major department advisor to submit a written request to the dean of The Graduate College at least three days before registration for the dean’s review and approval.

Credit Hour

For purposes of this catalog and in accord with federal regulations regarding the definition and assignment of credit hours under section 600.0 and 600.24(f) of the Higher Education Opportunity Act, a credit hour is an amount of work represented in intended learning outcomes and verified by evidence of student achievement that is an institutionally established equivalency that reasonably approximates:

• not less than one hour of classroom or direct faculty instruction and a minimum of two hours out of class student work each week for approximately fifteen weeks for one semester or trimester hour of credit, or ten to twelve weeks for one quarter hour of credit, or the equivalent amount of work over a different amount of time;

• at least an equivalent amount of work as outlined in the item above for other academic activities as established by the institution including laboratory work, internships, practicum, studio work, and other academic work leading to the award of credit hours.

A semester credit hour is defined by THECB as a unit of measure of instruction consisting of 60 minutes, of which 50 minutes must be direct instruction over a 15-week period in a semester system. Credit hours must be presented in whole numbers. Academic administrative units are responsible for ensuring that credit hours are awarded only for work that meets this requirement. Students should expect to invest a minimum of two hours of additional work for each hour of classroom or faculty instruction per week.

Addends and Drops/Schedule Changes

Information regarding schedule changes can be found on the Office of the University Registrar’s website at http://www.registrar.txstate.edu/. Schedule changes and withdrawal dates are published each term in the official university calendar that can be found at the following website: http://www.registrar.txstate.edu/persistent-links/academic-calendar.html.

Auditing a Course

To audit a course, a student must be admitted to The Graduate College. After the student has registered on CatsWeb, he or she must contact the Office of the University Registrar in person by the 4th class day in the summer or by the 12th class day in the fall or spring. Check the University Academic Calendar for the exact date. A student will pay the same fees as if the course were taken for credit and the course will be entered on his or her transcript record, but the student will not receive credit for the course.

Senior citizens, 65 or older, may audit courses without payment of a fee if space is available. Registration is permitted just prior to the start of the term, with reductions made by the tuition adjustment clerk, Student Business Services (JC Kellam Administration Building 188), after registering.

Course Numbers

Texas State follows a four-digit numbering system. The first digit indicates the level of the course: 1-freshman, 2-sophomore, 3-junior, 4-senior, 5- and 6-graduate and post-graduate, and 7-doctoral. Courses numbered 5000-6000 are open to all graduate students. Courses numbered 7000 are designed for doctoral students but may be open to other graduate students. The second digit of the course number indicates the semester credit hours the course carries. For example, a course numbered 5300 would carry three semester hours of graduate-level credit. The last two digits usually indicate the location of the course in the department’s curriculum. A letter (A, B, C, etc.) or symbol (#, @, etc.) attached to a course number indicates an area of concentration within the course. Numbers in parentheses (3-4) following a course title indicate the clock hours per week spent in lecture and laboratory, respectively.
Dropping a Class

Dropping a class is an official action whereby a student drops one or more courses, yet remains enrolled in at least one hour. Refer to the registration instructions at http://www.registrar.txstate.edu for details on dropping a class.

1. The drop deadline is the first 60% of the term. Please refer to the academic calendar on the University Registrar’s website for the most current dates.

2. A “W” grade will be assigned automatically when a student drops one or more classes by the automatic “W” deadline, the first 60% of the term.

Withdrawal

Withdrawal from the university (dropping all classes) is an official action whereby a student informs the Office of the University Registrar, who in turn informs the instructor(s) of record, that the student will cease attending all classes in which he or she is enrolled.

1. The deadline to receive an automatic “W” is the first 60% of the term. Please refer to the academic calendar on the registrar’s website for the most current dates.

2. After the automatic “W” period, faculty assign grades to students who officially withdraw from the university. Faculty assign a “W” grade only to those students who have a passing average at the time the withdrawal action is officially completed. Otherwise, faculty assigns a “U” grade.

3. Please refer to the academic calendar on the University Registrar’s website for the withdrawal deadline.

The student must contact the Office of the University Registrar in person, by letter, by email, or by fax to withdraw officially from the university. Visit the registrar’s office website at http://www.registrar.txstate.edu/ or contact the registrar’s office at 512.245.2367 for the proper procedures. Students living in university residence halls must also contact the Department of Housing and Residential Life in person, by letter, or by fax.
