MASTER OF FINE ARTS (M.F.A.), MAJOR IN THEATRE

Major Programs

A master of fine arts (M.F.A.) with a major in theatre will prepare students for the field of theatre, more specifically to direct theatre, lead a theatre, or to teach theatre. This degree will provide students with a strong theoretical and practical education in preparing productions so that they might have long, fruitful careers in theatre or higher education. It will also hone student skills in critical thinking, problem solving, creative analysis, and application of the craft to real world projects so that they might excel in today's quickly changing and ever diverse theatre and academic environments.

Admission Policy

For information regarding admission application requirements and deadlines, please visit The Graduate College website at http://www.gradcollege.txstate.edu/th.html.

Degree Requirements

The M.F.A. program is a three-year course of study that requires 60 semester credit hours. Students pursuing the M.F.A. in theatre may choose from the following three concentrations: directing, design, or dramatic writing.
