

---

The Academic Services offices, and units (Academic Testing for Students with Disabilities [ATSD], and Student Learning Assistance Center [SLAC], Testing, Evaluation, and Measurement Center [TEMC]) provide supplementary, essential services to students, faculty, and administration at Texas State. Specifically, administration of specific credit and non-credit testing, institutional testing for students with disabilities, tutoring, supplementary instruction, and enhancement of student academic performance, Academic Services coordinates the undergraduate general education core curriculum, the Honor Code, and Children and Minors on Campus.