DETERMINATION OF RESIDENCY STATUS

1. The following persons shall be classified as Texas residents and entitled to pay resident tuition:
   a. a person who graduated from a public or accredited private high school in this state or received the equivalent of a high school diploma in this state, and maintained a residence continuously in this state for the thirty-six months immediately preceding the date of graduation or receipt of the diploma equivalent, as applicable; and the 12 months preceding the census date of the academic semester in which the person enrolls in an institution;
   b. a person, or parent/court-appointed legal guardian if the person is a dependent, who established a domicile in this state not less than 12 months before the census date of the academic semester in which the person enrolls in an institution; and maintained a residence continuously in the state for the 12 consecutive months immediately preceding the census date of the academic semester in which the person enrolls in an institution. Non-domicile eligible visa holders, including F1 visa students, are strictly ineligible for this provision.
   c. a person who was previously enrolled and classified as a Texas resident by a Texas public institution of higher education AND maintained continuous enrollment or did not break enrollment for more than two consecutive regular (Fall/Spring) semesters immediately preceding the semester for which they intend to enroll at Texas State.
   d. a United States active duty military member who has had a State of Legal Residence of Texas on their military Leave and Earnings Statement for the last 12 consecutive months or has a Home of Record of Texas; a United States military veteran who had a Home of Record of Texas AND has returned to Texas within one year of discharge or had Texas listed as their State of Legal Residence on their Leave and Earnings Statements for the last 12 consecutive months of service AND has returned to Texas within one year of discharge.
   e. a person classified by the USCIS as a Refugee, Asylee, Parolee, Conditional Permanent Resident, or Temporary Resident;
   f. a person holding Temporary Protected Status, and Spouses and Children with approved petitions under the Violence Against Women Act (VAWA), an applicant with an approved USCIS I-360, Special Agricultural Worker, and a person granted deferred action status by USCIS;
   g. a person who has filed an application for Cancellation of Removal and Adjustment of Status under Immigration and Nationality Act 240A(b) or a Cancellation of Removal and Adjustment of Status under the Nicaraguan and Central American Relief Act (NACARA), Haitian Refugee Immigrant Fairness Act (HRIFA), or the Cuban Adjustment Act, and who has been issued a fee/filing receipt or Notice of Action by USCIS; and

2. The domicile of a dependent’s parent is presumed to be the domicile of the dependent unless the dependent establishes eligibility for resident tuition under subsection (1)(a) of this section.

3. A domicile in Texas is presumed if at least 12 consecutive months prior to the census date of the semester in which he or she is to enroll, the person owns real property in Texas, owns a business in Texas, or has been married for at least 12 months to a person who has established a domicile in Texas. Student conditioned employment such as work-study cannot be used to meet gainful employment requirements, per state law.

4. The temporary absence of a person or a dependent’s parent from the state for the purpose of service in the U.S. Armed Forces, Public Health Service, Department of Defense, U.S. Department of State, employment assignment, or educational purposes shall not preclude a person’s ability to establish domicile. The person or the dependent’s parent shall provide documentation of the reason for the temporary absence and show intent to return.
