The federal government requires that a student's aid eligibility only be based on those courses that count toward the completion of the student's degree. To be considered a full-time student for financial aid purposes, a student would want to enroll in 12 credit hours as an undergraduate (or 9 credit hours as a graduate) that count toward their degree. Remember, to be eligible for most financial aid, a student only needs to be enrolled at least half-time (6 hours for undergraduates and 5 hours for graduates). ## Alternative Loan Resources
For information on alternative loans, visit www.financialaid.txstate.edu (http://www.financialaid.txstate.edu), select Financial Aid from the menu and then Types of Aid.

Official Withdrawals and Financial Aid
If a student withdraws or is expelled from the university on or prior to the 60-percent point of the semester, the student is required to repay any unearned portion of federal Title IV aid. For more details, visit www.financialaid.txstate.edu (http://www.financialaid.txstate.edu), select Financial Aid from the menu and then Withdrawing & Attendance.

Unofficial Withdrawals and Financial Aid
If a student is a federal financial aid recipient and fails to receive earned grades (e.g., all Us, all Fs or a combination of all Us, Ws or Fs) in courses that span the entire period the student is scheduled to complete during a semester, the student is considered to have unofficially withdrawn from the university. As a result, a federal withdrawal calculation must be performed to determine the amount of Title IV funds that the student must repay. For more details, visit www.financialaid.txstate.edu (http://www.financialaid.txstate.edu/), select Financial Aid from the menu and then Withdrawing & Attendance.

Non-Attendance and Financial Aid
If the student is a Pell Grant, Iraq-Afghanistan Service Grant (IASG) or TEACH Grant recipient, federal regulations require the student to have begun attending the courses for which the student is enrolled and receiving these grants. If on the census date roster (e.g., 12th class day of each fall and spring semester) the student is reflected as not attending a course, the student is assumed (for financial aid purposes) not to have begun attendance for that course. The student’s grant will then be adjusted or cancelled based on the courses the student has actually begun attending. If the student is receiving any other forms of federal or state financial aid, this aid may also require adjustment due to the revised enrollment status. For more details, visit www.financialaid.txstate.edu (http://www.financialaid.txstate.edu/), select Financial Aid from the menu and then Withdrawing & Attendance.

To Withdraw
The student must submit the Online University Withdrawal form available via the University Registrar’s Office. Financial aid recipients should speak with a Financial Aid and Scholarships representative before the withdrawal is processed. The withdrawal date is defined as the date on which a student first indicates his or her intent to withdraw.
