STUDENT DATA, PRIVACY, AND COMMUNICATIONS

Correct Data
All students are responsible for making certain Texas State has correct demographic data. A student’s name will appear on official records as it is stated on the application for admission, unless a student has previously attended Texas State under a different name. Changes in name, local and/or permanent address, telephone number, marital status, etc., should be reported immediately to the office of the University Registrar. Texas State is not responsible for loss of correspondence credits due to unreported name changes. Address changes can be submitted at http://www.registrar.txstate.edu/our-services.html.

Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA)
FERPA protects the privacy of educational records, establishes the right of students to inspect and review their educational records, and provides guidelines for the correction of inaccurate or misleading data. Students also have the right to file complaints with the FERPA Office concerning alleged failures by Texas State to comply with the Act. University policy explains in detail the procedures to be used in complying with the Act. The policy is available at http://www.registrar.txstate.edu/legislative-policies/ferpa.html. The Dean of Students and the University Registrar both presume that each student is independent of his or her parents when dealing with the student’s educational records. Procedures for establishing dependency status are available in both offices.

Communications
Most university offices use Texas State email as the official means of communication. Students are expected to set up and read their Texas State email frequently.
