The minor in Technology requires 18 semester credit hours of Technology courses, of which 9 hours must be advanced. Courses will be determined by conference with a departmental faculty advisor or the Chair of the Department of Engineering Technology.