
ELAR 1300. Integrated Reading and Writing.

This course provides students with instruction in vocabulary, reading comprehension, critical reading, study skills, and test-taking skills based on their TSI-A scores. Concurrent enrollment in specific sections of general education courses is required. Credit earned for this course does not count toward degrees offered by the university. Corequisite: ENG 1310 with a grade of "D" or better.

3 Credit Hours. 3 Lecture Contact Hours. 0 Lab Contact Hours.

Course Attribute(s): Exclude from 3-peat Processing|Developmental/
Remedial|Multicultural Perspective|Multicultural Content

Grade Mode: Developmental