

The Minor in Health Informatics requires 19 semester credit hours. Health Informatics integrates health sciences, information science, computing, and data analytics to assist healthcare professionals to organize, analyze, and apply health information to improve clinical decisions and patient outcomes. The Minor in Health Informatics is designed to complement existing majors including the Bachelor of Science in Health Information Management, BS in Health Sciences, BS in Public Health, and other majors across the university.

Code	Title	Hours
Required Courses
HI 3310	Health Informatics	3
HI 3311	Databases in Healthcare	3
HI 4401	Advanced Health Informatics and Security	4
HIM 4331	Research and Data Analytics for HIM	3
Electives		6-7
ISAN 3389	Programming for Data Processing
GEO 2426	Fundamentals of Geographic Information Systems
HIM 3380	Quality Management for HIM
HA 4322	Public Health Administration
HIM 4393	Project Management for Health Information Management
PH 3370	Epidemiology
Total Hours		19-20