

The Minor in Business Law prepares students to apply the law to the practice of business. It is open to both business and non-business majors, and it can benefit students considering law school as well as those interested in the intersection of law and business. This is a 15-hour program. BLAW 3301 (for students pursuing a B.B.A. degree) or BLAW 3300 (for students not pursuing a B.B.A. degree) is required of all minors, and at least 9 of the 12 hours of electives must be in Business Law (BLAW) courses.
